This announcement is made by Proven Honour Capital Limited (the "Issuer") on a voluntary basis.

Huawei Investment & Holding Co., Ltd. (the "Guarantor") has recognised contingent liabilities, details of which are further set out in Note 34 (Contingent liabilities) to the consolidated financial statements summary of the Guarantor and its subsidiaries (together, the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2019 available at: https://www.huawei.com/en/press-events/annual-report/. Such contingent liabilities relate to the two indictments issued by the United States Department of Justice in January 2019 and its superseding indictment issued on 13 February 2020 which relates to the charges issued on 24 January 2019 against certain members of the Group.

The Group has engaged external legal advisers in respect of the aforesaid matters. These matters are at an early stage of proceedings. Management of the Guarantor therefore considers both the timing and the outcome of such matters to be inherently uncertain. Accordingly, the quantum of any obligation of the Group (if any) and any possible future financial effect on the Group’s financial statements resulting from such matters cannot be reliably estimated. As such, the above matters give rise to contingent liabilities for the Group and no provision has been made with respect to such matters.
